FURS OF UNUSUAL MERIT.

THE fur pieces we show look and are of most exquisite quality—rich, deep, snags, that have been selected by the best experts in the business, from the vast amount of furs brought to the market each season. They've been made up with equal care. We feel absolutely safe in selling them under the strictest guarantee that can be given.

New Fur Coats, Ties, Scarfs and Muffs—
—an unusual variety—gathered for the Christmas selling.

Women's Handkerchiefs, Not High, but Good.

WE've made an opportunity to sell you handkerchiefs of the class and merit we handle at prices that are in most instances but half usual figures. It's a sale—at the best time of the year for a sale of handkerchiefs. There'll be many handkerchiefs given at Christmas—and no handkerchiefs will win the appreciation and approval of the Parker-Budget kind—for they've got quality to them. Pure linen only. The prices are important.

Handkerchiefs worth 50c. . . . . 25c.
Handkerchiefs worth 75c. and $1 . . . . . 50c.
Handkerchiefs worth $1.50 . . . . . 75c.

The Umbrella Sale.

Women's $12 to $22
Umbrellas for = = = $5.50

THE most notable Umbrella sale we've ever held and it's winning the patronage it deserves. Thoroughly good umbrellas—the class that only the highest grade jewelry establishments usually show. The handles are all model handles—imported to this country to be copied at less cost—but we've got the originals—and in placing the values of $12 to $22 on the umbrellas—we've in many instances only about covered what it cost to bring the handles into the country. In chased gold, pearl and silver, hand-painted Dresden, Crystal, Gun Metal and hand-carved Ivory. Best taffeta silk (tape edge), 26-in. frame.

LACE NECKWEAR.

$1.00 to $1.50 Lace
Stocks and Collars = = = 50c.

RENCH made goods—the entire line of an importer who found himself with too much stock for this season of the year and took the shortest road to clearance. He closed out the Neckpieces to us at a half to a third less than value, and we're selling as we bought.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

MISS LEITER WILL BE COUNTLESS BEFORE THE YEAR CLOSURE.

Yesterday's Hospitality in Many Homes and Places—Personal Notes.

The marriage of Miss Daisy Leiter, youngest daughter of Mr. Levi S. Leiter, to the Earl of Suffolk is announced to take place on the afternoon of Tuesday, December 27, at the Leiter home in this city, though another date may yet be selected. A dispatch from Chicago says that the couple will sail for England and that Mrs. Leiter left that city last night to return to her home here. The wedding ceremony will be as quietly performed as in the case of Major and Mrs. Campbell. The bride-elect is in New York, where the Earl of Suffolk and his sister, Lady Howard, are sightseeing.

The debut presentation of Miss Ethel de Koven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald de Koven, yesterday afternoon in the ball room of the New Willard provided an enjoyable hour for fashionable society, when not only the ordinary pleasures of a tea were offered, but those who cared to dance had the opportunity. Mrs. de Koven was elegantly gowned in black velvet and her daughter was in light blue crepe. Mrs. de Koven, Mrs. George Howard, Miss Isabel May, Miss Edith Westmore, Miss Lovell, Miss Mathilde Townsend and Miss Mary Southard were assistants to the hostess at the table where tea dainties were dispensed.

Representative and Mrs. Henry Kirk Porter, whose occupancy of the Don Cameron house, on Lafayette square, has more than maintained its social prestige, entertained there last night about 200 guests, the company assembling before 10 o'clock, when the Kunitz string quartet of Pittsburgh, with the Kunitz family, gave a delightful program from Schubert, Schumann and Haydn. Miss Hegeman received with her mother, and in the notable company present were Mrs. Schuber, Schumann and Haydn. Miss Hegeman received with her mother, and in the notable company present were Mrs. Schuber, Schumann and Haydn.

The first of two annual receptions to the members of the congregation of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church was given last evening by Rev. Dr. W. B. Brown, Wallace Radcliffe at his residence, 1200 F street northwest. From 8 o'clock to 11 o'clock the parlors were filled with an anticipated throng of those who called on the men and women prominent in the official, professional and social life of the city. Refreshments were served in the dining room. Mrs. Graves and Mrs. A. B. Hart presiding at the tables. Mrs. Radcliffe was assisted in receiving by Mrs. A. Snow, Mrs. W. C. Curry, Mrs. Charles B. Brown, the Misses Rose and Miss Shaw. The second reception will be given next Monday evening.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Achille Burkin, No. 1003 L street northwest, was thronged last night by invited guests on the occasion of the anniversary of the marriage of the couple. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated. The hostess, Mrs. Burkin, in a gown of pale blue messaline crepe, with jeweled trimmings, was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Sallie J. Mauger and her sister, Mrs. F. W. Budecke. The guests were numerous and beautiful, were appropriately of cut glass and crystal. An elaborate buffet lunch was served to the guests, among whom were: Rev. Rockford Stetson, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Lerch, Mrs. Sallie J. Mauger, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Budecke, Mrs. Emma Smith and daughters, Misses Emma and Elsie; Mrs. H. Eyre of Philadelphia, Mrs. P. W. Budecke, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Randolph and Miss Leah Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Young and Mrs. Bentley Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Haver and Mrs. M. J. Haver, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Corridon, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Carver, Mr. and Mrs. George Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pillsbury, Mrs. Nellie Suss, Mrs. Robert Lamb and Miss Ella Lamb, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Lothrop, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Apple, Mrs. Chas. Fletcher, Mrs. Josephine Dent, Misses Libbie Marr, Kate Daniel, Kate and Mrs. M. G. Ginnell, Mabel West, Kate Sterling and Messrs. Masterson Kite, Comstock, Schick, Mauger and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Carlyle, who have been traveling in the west, for several months and are now in Salt Lake City, will spend the winter in Southern California, returning to Washington early in the spring to reopen their country home in Maryland.

The marriage is announced of Mr. Frank R. Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Todd, to Miss Jeannette Artz of Rushville, Ill.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Whaley was celebrated at their home, Minnesota avenue, Anacostia, D. C., December 9, 1904. Many guests were present. The guests were numerous. Mrs. Whaley was handsomely dressed in moiré silk. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Swindells, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hutchinson, Mrs. J. H. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hoge, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Woolf, Mr. and Mrs. James Roon, Dr. J. R. Stoughton, Mr. M. G. Green, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. R. S. Hutchinson, Mrs. Swindells, Mrs. Parker, Misses Emma Robey, Hattie Whaley, Mabel Palmer, Nora, Mrs. Orr and Ruth Whaley, Mrs. J. H. Nichols; Messrs. James Head, Chester Hutchinson and B. Swindells. Solos were given by Miss Emma Robey and little Ruth Whaley, violin and piano music rendered by Mrs. Parker. Mr. Chester Hutchinson and Miss Nora Whaley. The table was laden with good things and prettily decorated.

A quiet home wedding took place last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Lawson, on Princeton street northwest, when their sister, Miss Florence A. Clapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellis Clapp, became the bride of Mr. J. H. Thompson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Muir and only the immediate relatives of the family were present. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Brock left for New York.

Mrs. J. D. Welch of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. A. Zundt at the Virginia flats.

Mrs. Harry S. Wolf will be at home Fridays during January at 630 G street southeast.

A beautiful wedding took place last evening, at the home of Mrs. Serafino V. Atti, on 9th street, when her niece, Miss Anna McEnry became the bride of Mr. James M. Griffin of the coast and geodetic survey. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. J. Muir, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret McEnry and Mrs. McEnry was the groom's brother, Mr. Robert Griffin. After the ceremony, a bountiful collation was served and the health of the bride was drunk. The bride was elegantly gowned in white lace over satin; the maid of honor's gown was of white crepe de chine. The couple departed on a late train for Atlanta, Ga., where they will spend a month with the groom's parents, after which they will reside in this city.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Beyer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. and Mrs. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Kellum, Miss Giltman, Miss Hogan, Mr. Thompson, Mr. King, Mr. Shaffer and Mr. Smith.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Bessie G. Wilson of Hail-Jefferson county, Va., to Mr. Albert B. Cooks, formerly of Shepherdstown, but now residing in this city. The ceremony will take place at the home of Mr. Lathan Church, Tuesday, December 27 next.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boxley of Louisiana county, Va., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Josephine Boxley, to Mr. Clarence B. Stamp. The ceremony will take place in the Baptist Church in Louisiana county, at noon tomorrow.

Monday, January 9, is the date selected for the annual charity ball for the Children's Hospital and the arrangements for the event are in charge of Mrs. John Rodgers and Mrs. William Merriam.

Miss Helene Black, youngest daughter of General and Mrs. C. Black, is the debutante of this afternoon and one of the most attractive and interesting of the college girls presented this year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haywood gave a dinner last night in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney of Honolulu. The guests were Representative and Mrs. Dalzell, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Neale, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansing, Dr. and Mrs. Magruder, Dr. and Mrs. Chittard, Mr. John Sidney Webb and Miss Thompson.

Mrs. Charles G. Dullin and family returned to their 10th street home about a fortnight ago, having spent the autumn in Boston, after closing the cottage at Magnolia. Mrs. Dullin has had several guests from Detroit staying with her since her return and has been entertaining very delightfully for them.
